

MOBILITIES IN DRESDEN, GERMANY - FLUX 7

PARTNER:
WBS TRAINING AG,
DRESDEN

On the 17.04.2016 the interns and their tutor arrive in Dresden station. Ms Madeleine Diab lead the group of students to the Mezzaluna Hotel..

On the first day of mobility Ms Natalia Kolomiets lead the interns and presented them WBS Training AG Center and explained the tasks for the following couple of weeks. Then the interns participated to the Safety and Health training and had the pleasure of meeting their class trainers.

The initial assessment

Visiting the 3 star IBIS Hotel and Gewandhaus the 5 star hotel of Dresden and practical training activities

Hotel GEWANDHAUS***** while cleaning hotel rooms and preparing breakfast.
Visiting the bakery and confectioner school in Dresden. There are 400.000 bakeries and 9 bakery schools in Germany.

The German-Hungaro-Romanian gastronomy: preparing potato soup together with our most respected internship tutor Mr. Thomas

During internship classes at the reception of Mezzaluna Hotel together with our interns Kojan Hajnalka and Demeter Mátyás

Visiting the bakery and confectioner school in Dresden.
There are 400.000 bakeries and 9 bakery schools in Germany.
Preparing and serving breakfast at the Mezzaluna Hotel Restaurant.

Cleaning the hotel rooms and halls.

Following Bacchus' steps. Under the tutorship of Lisa Hegemann our interns have discovered the unknown secrets of the wine and they have learnt how to serve them, as well. With great curiosity the interns have analyzed both white and red wines and served them just like a real professional.

A visit to Dresden vinery which dates from 1836. The castle belonged to a Hungarian count but in 1945 it had been bombed. Only 3 years ago had it been refurbished and used again. There is a wine factory and a showroom.

In the vineyard

Showroom

Quick test
about the wine

Wine taste

The last day of activity the interns took a final assessment test under the supervision of professor Thomas Kleinrensing. The internship mentor Ms Madeleine Diab and the internship professor Thomas Kleinrensing who represented the assessment committee have evaluated the interns' performance thus giving them feedback.

Cultural activities during the mobilities

THANK YOU!

TEACHER: MS.
FODOR KATALIN